

A Stitch In Time

WITH MOTHER GOOSE

by Amy Barickman of Indygo Junction and The Vintage Workshop

Amy Barickman's newest collection is delightfully charming! 1930's era, stitchery squares each depicting classic Mother Goose scenes are recreated as repeating six inch blocks. These blocks are set against a tiny check in both a red and blue colorway. The blocks are set into rows with ample spacing so that it is easy to cut them apart to use individually or to feature within a larger quilt block. Cut several as a group and use to make a tote for sewing or nursery supplies! Complementing the blocks is a tossed, multicolor print that features assorted Mother Goose vignettes. The 1930's colors are carried through to the coordinate patterns. There are four floral designs in a variety of scale and color. The medium floral features tossed flowers on a ground with delicate picotage dots and silhouette flowers. An excellent design for skirts, curtains and totes! The sweet daisy print has rich, deep grounds with bunches of tiny white daisies placed on top. Bouquets of "buttonhole stitched" posies are silhouetted against color-rich grounds to create a print with lots of movement! Finally, there is a two-color print with small daisies outlined against a subtle windowpane check. This collection also includes the animals from the Mother Goose tales as a whimsical, tossed print set against classic 30's colors of bubblegum pink, mustard yellow and seafoam green. A simple yet strong ticking stripe rounds out the group and will make terrific sashing, borders and binding as well as fabulous bedskirts or curtains! Bonus! We've added a classic, cream-colored solid to match the grounds of the collection prints.

And, don't forget your display!

Use the suggested items above as well as our free quilt pattern to create a wonderful variety of enticing kits! Do you have any vintage or reproduction Mother Goose items? If so, use those to decorate your display area. Create a class by using the Mother Goose blocks to teach basic embroidery skills. It's perfect since you can just start stitching – no pattern tracing! Provide matching floss and needle along with a few blocks for a student kit. Sell these "starter kits" to other customers as well or include embroidery floss and needles as part of your display. You can also create a nursery vignette in your shop if you have access to a crib. Use rows of the Mother Goose blocks to create dust ruffles for the crib as well as combine them with the coordinates to create other nursery/toddler items such as toy bags, soft books, etc.
