

Introducing a black, white, and red collection by Red Rooster Fabrics' Studio...

Masquerade

The Masquerade collection recalls the scale and simplicity of mid-20th century American modern prints when black, white, and red was a popular combination for women's clothing and home decorating. The large stylized daisy is complemented by smaller florals, medium-scale string dots, and lively polka dots that can be used as a texture in quilts and clothing. A snazzy stripe completes the collection. Masquerade is great for easy, big block quilts, table décor, aprons, and totes. A simple-to-piece quilt using the large floral in the center of snowball blocks, designed by Lisa Moore of Quilts with a Twist, will be available with this collection.
